WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

POSITIVELY

Copy for "changes" in advertisements MUST be sent in before 2 o'clock on the previous day.

IF you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Mrs. Flora Bradley, who has been very sick with pneumonia, is somewhat better.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Studebaker of South Bend, Ind., are stopping at the New St. Charles Hotel. Mr. Studebaker is a member of one of the largest manufacturing concerns in the world, and is in Mason county in the interest of the firm.

Sterling Silver goods are gradually advancing. One advance in price since January 1st, another looked for. We have a very large stock on hand and will offer them at the old prices. Now is your opportunity for bargains. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mr. David Sloan died at his home in Watseka, Ill., last week. He was born in this city in 1819. When he was a young man he moved to Byrd township, Brown county, O., and in 1840 was married to Miss Esther Menaugh. He was an ardent Republican. The widow, over 87 years of age, survives him.

THE LEDGER generally brings gratifying results, hence the following taken from The Cincinnati Times-Star is given place in its columns: Miss May McElfresh, who left her Maysville home five years ago and is now living in this city, is anxious to locate her father, Wesley McElfresh, or her sister, Isabel, both of whom left Maysville for some other point several years ago.

Mr. Gerard C. Smith, accompanied by his sister, Miss Smith, is registered at the New Central. Mr. Smith in his young manhood was connected with the drughouse of Seaton & Brodick, prominent in business here for many years. He went from here to Pittsburgh, and has gradually grown into a position of independence, being now the Vice-President of the National Lead Company. His many friends here will be glad to know that he and his sister will be here several days.

SOCIAL EVENTS

A recital of music given by the Sisters of Loretta to their class on yesterday afternoon was a decided success. The pupils entertained their audience with a program, the rendition of which showed faithfulness to duty from teacher and child.

The parents expressed themselves as well pleased, finding but one fault with the numbers, they said—too short.

The prize souvenir was carried by Miss Catherine Devine and the one that brought much merriment by Miss Edna Leonard. As "Success" is the motto of the class, we trust the remaining part of the year will be crowned with it for them.

Cumberland (Md.) Daily News, February 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lambert, Decatur street, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Price of Lonaconing last evening gave a reception at the Lambert residence, this city, in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Frankenberg, who are spending a portion of their honeymoon in this vicinity. Mrs. Frankenberg is a sister of Mrs. Lambert and Mrs. Price, and was formerly Miss Henrietta Davis of Maysville, Ky. She spent several weeks among friends here two years ago. A large number of out-of-town guests were present at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert and Mr. and Mrs. Price were assisted in receiving by Mrs. William White, Mrs. Lou Rosenbaum and Mrs. S. Hamburger, the latter an aunt of the bride. The bride was gown in her wedding dress of white silk covered with white mull, embroidered in white satin roses and Duchess lace.

Potted plants and decorations of pink and white gave added beauty to the pretty costumes of the ladies, and the table decorations, where refreshments were served throughout the evening, were of pink and white. Robert Moulton was caterer.

This afternoon Mrs. S. Hamburger will entertain at her residence on Washington street in honor of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Frankenberg will leave next Tuesday evening for Charleston, W. Va., the home of the groom, where they will reside in the future.

RUST PROOF VARIETY OATS

Immense yield. 15 bushels more per acre. We have them. M. C. RUSSELL.

WOULD WEAR WELL!

But Just Think of a Swell Suit of Beefsteak!

When Uncle Sam's Supreme Court decided that the Beef Trust was an unlawful combine "in restraint of trade," and that it mustn't do it any more, there were people green enough to believe that the "busting of the Trust" was going to make beefsteaks so cheap and tender that even an Editor could afford to buy and eat them.

But that the aim of the Court and the hope of the commune have gone awry, was illustrated by an incident in a local meatery a few days ago.

Several ladies were filing orders in an effort to reach hubby's heart by the stomach route, when one, whose worse half is a drygoods man, complained of an inferior roast that she had gotten recently.

"Oh, well," said Mr. Cleaver, "those things will happen; sometimes you get poor meat, and sometimes a piece of drygoods isn't what it ought to be, and occasionally one gets a suit of clothes that doesn't pan out all right."

"Well, if you had a suit of clothes made from the beefsteak you sent me yesterday, you would be wearing it when Gabriel blew his horn," was the warm retort that came from one of the ladies whose husband prides himself on the style and quality of the toggery he sells.

And you could have heard a dew-drop.

CONFIDENCE NOT MISPLACED

Actor Edward N. Hoyt Showed That He Was a Gentleman

The return of actor Edward N. Hoyt to this city several days ago recalls an incident, known to a very few, that transpired here several weeks ago.

It will be remembered that Mr. Hoyt met with reverses during his engagement here and he was stranded.

Notwithstanding he was the beneficiary of a home talent entertainment, the receipts therefrom fell far short of liquidating his indebtedness.

In this quandary he appealed to the good graces of a Court street lawyer, a Minister and a citizen for the loan of a sum sufficient to purchase transportation for himself and wife to New York City, where he had the promise of an engagement at $50 per week.

The gentlemen approached were in a sense entire strangers, yet the impress of honesty in the man's face won the day and he was given a sum sufficient to take him and his wife East.

That the confidence thus bestowed was not misplaced was realized a few weeks after by the donors receiving a check for the full amount.

This is made mention of simply to demonstrate that it is not always best to give the marble heart in all cases when appealed to for aid and sympathy.

It is just such incidents as the above brotherly love act that make life worth the living.

Every man who asks for aid is not a rascal, neither are those appealed to possessed with hearts of stone.

The battalion of Filipino scouts, who will take part in the inauguration in Washington City, passed East over the C. and O. yesterday afternoon. They will return to Fort Thomas on Monday morning.

A Dress Goods Budget.

Ponder it carefully, profit by it quickly. There is helpful suggestion in it, on cotton dress goods serviceable and popular.

CORDED MADRAS 12½c a Yard.

Fine, 32-inch Corded Madras as excellent in weave as goods from Scotland that sell at 25c a yard. Colorings are the clearest and prettiest we've seen and there are thirty-two different patterns. Here is your summer supply of shirt waist suits at a trilling cost.

BOURETTE SUITINGS 18c a Yard.

An excellent reproduction in cotton of high grade wool covers. A two toned effect is produced in the weaving with a charming color play resulting.

FANCY SATEEN 15c a Yard.

Sateen is too old-fashioned a name for this clever silk imitation. In appearance, in texture, in luster, in actual feel it counterparts the product of the silk worm. Many colors in patterns of delightful variety.

The Spring Embroideries.

The new Embroideries include some of the most beautiful needlework we have ever shown. Our stock is unusually extensive because of the irresistible loveliness of this season's designs. Many patterns on fine but firm, closely woven are exact reproductions of handwork. They look like the embroidered strips of our mother's days—solid well filled scallops with vine patterns in raised effect above. But why be satisfied to read about all this beauty when the seeing is so much more satisfactory? Let us show you instead of telling you. To generalize we have Edgings of Nainsook, Cambric and Swiss Muslin 10c to $2.50 a yard.

Insertings of similar materials 10c to $2.85 a yard.

Flouncings of Nainsook and Swiss embroidered and lace trimmed 25c a yard to $3.75.

Plain, plaited and lace trimmed Allover 35c to $5 a yard.

JUST now the Ohio river is coming in for its full share of damns.

If Mr. President HAWKINS went to Florida to seek a milder climate, he might as well return; he will find it quite warm enough for him in Kentucky.

OVER in Indian Territory a local newspaper man pulled CARRIE NATION out of the way of a moving train. Can't imagine what grievance that reporter had against the public.

NEWSPAPER folk are in tough lines with saloonists in Louisville. An intelligent Jury fined Editor KNOTT $500 for slandering a saloon-keeper, and a few days ago a barkeep shot one of The Times and Courier-Journal carriers, mistaking him for a burglar.

THE Russian Army has one victory to its credit, anyhow. A dispatch from Warsaw states that in a fight between girls of the High School and the Police, Cossacks were called out and drove the girls and their mothers to their homes, lashing them with knouts.

TEN days after THE LEDGER had announced the complete collapse of the Burley Tobacco Growers Association, President W. B. HAWKINS, Secretary E. E. BARTON and Attorney ARCHIBALD STUART issued an "official" statement corroborating THE LEDGER. If the tobacco growers—and all the rest of mankind—want facts and not fiction, let them read THE LEDGER.

APPENDICITIS is defined as a modern pain that costs about $200 more than the old-fashioned belly-ache.

THE Czar's police may go on a strike at Warsaw. They object to being shot at on a salary of $6 a month.

ONE way in which Louisville is just now being quite well advertised is the fining of Editor KNOTT $500 for saying that there is a combined saloon, gambling den and bawdy-house in that city.

THE stockholders of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company are to meet in Louisville in a few weeks to vote on a proposed issue of $50,000,000 in bonds. Why not turn the road over to Kentucky's Auditor's Agents and be done with it?

WHENEVER Republican papers have spoken of partisan Courts in Kentucky the Goebelized press has reared up on its hind legs and denounced the charge; and yet so good a Democratic paper as The Hopkinsville Kentuckian refers to "the Democratic Courts of Louisville." Thanks.

IN discussing peace propositions at St. Petersburg, it was suggested that Russia should give Port Arthur and the Lioting Peninsula to Japan. As Japan already has possession of both, and Russia hasn't been able to drive her out, the Czar is likely to die of enlargement of the heart—or a bomb.

A DISPATCH from Hattiesburg, Miss., says that WILLIAM KANE, a New Orleans man who has just been removed from that place to the Meridian Asylum, is physically vigorous, but is without brains. Two months ago in a railroad accident his skull was partially torn away and his brains scattered about on the ground. He is now well except that his brains cannot be replaced. Next thing Mr. KANE will be promoting a Tobacco Trust.

Curing That Grippe Cough!

I. Grippe leaves the lungs in a sensitive condition. "Grippe Cough" is the symptom of a sudden, stubborn inflammation of the air passages that should be cured as quickly as possible.

II. There's no question as to the kind of remedy needed. It must be a healing, soothing, building, strengthening preparation that will remove the cause of the trouble. Ordinary narcotic cough syrups will not answer.

III. CHENOWETH'S COUGH SYRUP has just the action that any remedy must have to thoroughly cure grippe cough. It has a direct, specific effect on the mucous membrane of the air passages. We know of nothing better for coughs of this class, or, for that matter, for any kind of cough. We will refund your money if the remedy fails.

River News

The river is climbing the bank steadily.

The Crown Hill and Gleaner are on the Ways at Cincinnati, safe from ice.

Navigation is open between Gallipolis and Huntington and from Louisville to New Orleans.

Captain Thomas Muse, aged 82, running between Pittsburgh and Louisville, died at Rochester, Pa.

From the amount of ice that has been there so long, it looks like Cincinnati won't get warm for a year or two.

The towboat Little Clyde was sold at Evansville to Minneapolis parties. She will be used for towing lumber.

In the vicinity of Bromley about thirty of the 107 barges and boats of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company, which broke away on Sunday, February 12th, but were in fairly good condition up to Saturday night, were ground to pieces, all being a total wreck. They were valued at $30,000.

At New Richmond, ice gathered under the bow of the C. and O. ferryboat Champion No. 2, wrecking her. She was valued at $2,000.

A shift of the ice in the Cincinnati harbor pushed one of the city's auxiliary pump boats onto the bank and wrecked it, causing damage amounting to $25,000.

The river was full of heavy floating ice last night, and Captain Pfister and his crew had all they could do taking care of the wharftow and ferry. Several barges belonging to Gable Bros. were pushed out on the bank.

The big ice gorge above Cincinnati broke Tuesday, hurling with irresistible force thousands of tons of ice upon helpless craft, crushing some, sinking others and driving still others high upon the banks. The steamer New South was caught by the fies and carried away; the Virginia was greatly disabled; some 150 barges were beached and warped. Altogether the damage will run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. The Marmet Coal Company lost four coalboats, containing 100,000 bushels of fuel. The greatest losers by the present break-up will be the Monongahela Consolidated Coal and Coke Company. A few days ago the towboat Delta was sunk. The boat was raised and put back into service after the expenditure of several thousand dollars. Three days ago the towboat Relief was sunk.

The towns of Holbrook and St. Johns, in Arizona, have been deserted on account of the fear that an immense dam is about to break.

Miss Minnie Mulveil, a young Chicago heiress, was shot and instantly killed on Michigan boulevard in that city by Daniel Herman, a member of the police force. The girl's refusal to marry him is said to have been the cause of the crime. Herman committed suicide.

Stocks of high grade oil will be drawn upon from the fields of Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Kentucky at the rate of 25,000 barrels a day to be shipped to Japan, that country having an order for 10,000,000 gallons of refined oil to take the place of the Russian product. During the past week the pleasant weather had the effect of hastening the completion of wells in the Kentucky and Tennessee fields. Wayne county alone furnished six wells, two of them being seventy-five-barrel strikes.

Some Sound Sense

What One Practical Burley Grower Thinks of the Tobacco Trust.

Editor Public Ledger: There seems to exist in the minds of the tobacco growers a condition of actual distress over the past and present and prospective future low price for tobacco. Toward the American Tobacco Company, to which the present low price for tobacco is attributed, there is a sentiment of strong resentment. The failure of the Farmers Organization of success in consummating their plan, through which there was great hope of relief, is a great disappointment. There are, however, some of the tobacco growers who do not take so pessimistic a view of the situation. Since white men began the cultivation of tobacco in America the price has fluctuated more probably than that of any other product of the farm. When the yield is good and the price high, the profit is enormous; so a few good crops at high prices have always induced over-production, a glut in the market, and a price with the bottom out. Then a let-up in the production, probably a failure of the plant beds, protected until recently only by having brush thrown over them, the surplus would be used up and the price high again. In Colonial times, every means that could be devised or imagined was resorted to, even to burning large quantities of it in order to maintain the high price, but without avail. For several years now the price has been more stable than ever before—not very low, not very high, but giving to the diligent man a good return for his labor. It is asserted that the present price is too low, and that the price is fixed by the American Tobacco Company.

The American Tobacco Company has no right to exist except as the servant of the growers and consumers of tobacco. Its function is to take the tobacco crop from the hands of the growers, fit it for use and pass it to the user, and to receive for its service fair compensation—and no more. The value of service depends in some degree upon the qualities of the servant, but almost wholly upon the character of the Master—and the Master always has as good service as he merits. These combinations of smart men and millions of money have a service power of immense value to the people if properly used, or of doing great harm if not under proper restraint. The only real danger to the people lies in the alliance between the Trust with the Machine Boss and the oily-tongued political demagogue—the man we select to make laws for us, who has devoted all his energies to, and has become proficient in, the art of getting votes, but usually knows little about business and nothing about making laws. Let us erase the party insignia by which is only known to which Boss we belong, as we know by the name of Mollie Muggins on the collar of the pet poodle that the dog belongs to Mollie Muggins.

Let us be independent, let us be men, and elect men that are honest and capable to make and judge and execute our laws for us, and then the Trusts can do us no harm; they will be our servants, we will be just to them, and they will be just to us; and through the service rendered by them the wheels of industry will move as they never have moved before.

For the past two years the air has been filled with the talk of the people and the publications of the papers on the present abject conditions of white burley tobacco growers contrasted with their flourishing state prior to the advent of the Continental or American Tobacco Company. Now, I want to say that my time is measurably taken up in attending to my own affairs, and I know but little of the business of my neighbors, and have in my possession but little data upon which to make a comparison of past and present prices. I am able, however, to quote some prices of the last five years, and some of an earlier period when we were in the hands of the warehousemen and others of our friends.

One of my neighbors has sold at an average of $9.50 for five years, two of the crops not of top quality; several others have done about as well. This tobacco when stripped was loaded on the wagon and delivered to the buyer without further handling or risk of mildew or funk, which risk was always considerable under the old system when the grower of the tobacco was required to put the tobacco in keeping order.

Now, I will quote some prices of that period during which we are told that the price was always from 10 to 20 cents a pound to the farmer. According to my recollection such tobacco as is selling now, and sold one year ago at 12 cents, sold during the summer of 1887 at 12 to 15 cents, or possibly more per pound, but how many farmers remember getting as much as 12 cents that year? I sold at 6 a crop of good medium quality. My crop was the last of a considerable purchase by the shipper to whom I sold, and I got a better price than those selling earlier in the season. Much good tobacco left the farmers' hands at 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 cents. It was usually the other fellow and not the grower who got the high price.

We had two grievances at that time, the middle man, the shipper who stood between us and the warehousemen, and who expected to, but did not always, get a good slice out of the crop, and the warehousemen, who intended to, and always did, get a big slice. In '86 quite a goodly number of us went around the shipper, prized our own tobacco and took it directly to the warehouse. When a farmer came home from the market with the returns on his crop—if he got any—he looked as if his digestion was completely suspended, and he felt only fit to be hung.

Such crops as are bringing $12 now sold then on the breaks at $5. Deduct cost of prizing, shipping and selling, at least $1.50, and we have $3.50 left for such tobacco as we are selling today at $12.

If one wants good service, the server must be treated with justice and consideration, and appreciation of the work done must be made manifest. The man who chews and smokes tobacco is entitled to have it come to him from the producer without unnecessary charges laid upon it.

The tobacco grower is entitled to all the price for his product that the relation of supply to demand, with no arbitrary influence, will warrant. The only question to be considered in estimating the merit of any go-between the producer and consumer of a product, is, does it do the work, and does it do it economically, and does it receive a reward in proportion to the service rendered?

The American Tobacco Company is certainly well equipped in every respect for taking tobacco from the producer, fitting it for use and passing it over to the consumer, in the best possible manner, and at the least possible expense; and I believe—and I think I have as good reason for believing as those persons who assert the contrary have for their opinion—that they are not causing the price of tobacco to be lower to the producer or higher to the consumer. The raisers of tobacco in the White Burley District are no such abjects and dependents as they would be guardians would have them appear. They are an independent and a manly set. The older folks live at ease and in comfort. The young people work hard, take a goodly amount of recreation, wear good clothes, drive good horses and ride in good vehicles. They court and get married, and have lots of children. They make money and save it; they are happy and are good citizens. I doubt if there is in the world anywhere a more thrifty rural people, and they do not need to have anybody feeling sorry for them.

You Can Feel Better at Once!

When everything seems an effort, when you feel tired most of the time, when you wake up every morning as tired as when you went to bed,—then there is something wrong.

Nature is protesting against some neglect or some abuse.

Nature protests more often against nerve neglect than any other cause.

Remember, your strength is not in your muscles—the muscles simply work when the Nerve Force tells them to.

Even your brain does not work by itself—the substance in your brain cells must have energy to do its work; this energy must be nerve force—the same great power-of-life that controls every organ of the body.

Every form of weakness, or sickness, or disease, comes from a lack of Nerve Force to keep the organs working properly.

When one speaks of "a good constitution," one simply means a strong, healthy nerve system.

When the nerve system is not strong and well-nourished, it follows inevitably that one is easily "over-worked"—easily run down—just as Mrs. Lowry describes.

"For several months my system had been run down and I felt all worn out, tired, did not feel able to get out of bed in the morning and felt just as tired when I got up as when I retired. Had no appetite and looked pale and sallow. A friend who had used Paine's Celery Compound a couple of years ago, and who recommended it very highly, induced me to try it. I felt better at once and I found that at the end of six weeks it had changed me into a well woman, and I cannot say too much in its praise. I shall take a bottle every Spring and Fall and feel sure that it is all the medicine I shall need. Very truly yours,"—Mrs. Ina M. Lowry, 3109 Dunham Ave., Kansas City, Mo. (Worthy Matron Order of Eastern Star; Rec. Sec. Kansas City Friendly Aid Society.)

Paine's Celery Compound is giving new Nerve Force to thousands every day by feeding and restoring the nerves to their full strength. It never fails to build up the run down system to full, ruddy health.

Two days' treatment proves its marvelous power. You feel better at once.

Try Paine's Celery Compound to-day. Take just one dose when you go to face the hard part of the day's trials.

See how much better you feel.

See how much more easily the trials roll away.

Paine's Celery Compound feeds the nerves—restores them to their strength—gives them new power to send vitality and health to every part of your body, new courage to your heart, new animation to your brain.

Remember this—Paine's Celery Compound is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians this country has ever known, Prof. E. E. Phelps, of Dartmouth University.

All reputable druggists recommend and sell Paine's Celery Compound.

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of Them in Maysville, and Good Reason For It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy, After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, She finds relief and cure? No reason why any Maysville reader Should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Lizzie Burns, living on the Blue Run Turnpike, West End, Maysville, Ky., says: "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I expressed through our newspapers in the spring of 1900 has not altered. I value this preparation more highly today than I did when I gave my first testimonial. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore I was troubled with severe spells of backache, and kidney complaint, which came on every three or six months, and there were times when I was confined to my bed and rendered almost helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have noticed slight returns of backache since, but an appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills has never failed to quickly and positively check the trouble. In every case I know among my friends when Doan's Kidney Pills have been used the results have always been satisfactory."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
